

Romantic Ceremony – Sand Ceremony #1

_____ and _____, you have just sealed your relationship by the giving and receiving of rings, this covenant is a relationship pledge between two people who agree that they will commit themselves to one another throughout their lives. The most beautiful example of this partnership is the marriage relationship. You have committed here today to share the rest of your lives with each other.

Today, this relationship is symbolized through the pouring of these two individual containers of sand, one representing you, _____ and all that you were, all that you are, and all that you will ever be, and the other representing you, _____ and all that you were, all that you are, and all that you will ever be.

As these two containers of sand are poured into the third container, the individual containers of sand will no longer exist, but will be joined together as one. Just as these grains of sand can never be separated and poured again into the individual containers, so will your marriage.

_____ and _____, these two separate containers of sand represent the different paths upon which you have travelled. While those paths took you in different directions many years ago, destiny has brought you to this moment. Today you find yourselves standing together at the entrance of a new path that will forever join your once separate journeys into one.

In a moment, I will ask that you blend your individual containers of sand into one. May it symbolize the coming together of your individual lives, as well as a covenant to each other to never again allow the other to walk the road of life alone. And just as these individual sands become intertwined and inseparable, so may your commitment be to one another.

Now, as your sand comes together as one, let it always be a reminder of the day that the two of you became one; hand in hand, heart to heart, flesh to flesh and soul to soul.
